

Let individual States decide the details of their NO CALL plans. Wisconsin has a good no call policy. Non-profits should be allowed to call unless told not to. For-profits & their affiliates should not be allowed to call after discontinuation of services unless the customer renews the correspondence.